

CONTINUOUS THREAT EXPOSURE MANAGEMENT

Tailor-made intelligence

HOW CAN TELEFÓNICA TECH HELP?

We adapt cyber intelligence to your needs in customized solutions for unparalleled protection.

In a landscape where cyber threats are constantly evolving and cyber attacks are becoming more sophisticated and frequent, the repercussions of a successful attack can be devastating. As a result, a robust Cyber Security strategy is critical.

At Telefónica Tech, we help you strengthen your Cyber Security posture and mitigate risks with a tailored intelligence project designed to identify, understand and anticipate evolving cyber threats, protecting your reputation, business and confidential information.

WHO IS THIS SERVICE FOR?

Multinational organizations or public sector entities that, due to their level of maturity or the requirements of their sector, have very specific needs that cannot be satisfied with standard managed services.

OUR VALUE PROPOSITION

Our service

Our industrialized cyber intelligence services offer great flexibility, but we understand that each customer is different and sometimes specific needs arise that must be addressed in a customized manner.

Our technology-agnostic approach, where we use a combination of proprietary developments and market-leading technologies, together with our technological and intelligence expertise, gives us unparalleled capabilities in the market and allows us to offer fully customized solutions for those customers who have specific needs.

What does it allow you to do?

- Dedicated team: we provide you with a dedicated team of analysts with expertise in known, unknown and ad-hoc risks.
- Broad risk coverage: analysts specialized in the digital risks important to your business (technological, operational, competitive, emerging or unknown).
- Customizable analyst location and time coverage: analysts can be located wherever you decide, as well as provide 8/5, 12/5, 16/7, etc. coverage. You decide.
- Tailor-made deliverables based on your needs: the analyst team generates deliverables specially adapted to you (dashboards, press clippings, reports, executive briefings, special follow-ups...).
- Developments: our technical teams can address specific developments to generate dashboards, automate tasks, integrate tools or any other needs that may arise.
- Use of multiple tools: we complement the technological stack of our managed services with other technologies that can meet your specific needs.
